

2012 - CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Calling all media artists from the Atlantic provinces, The Island Media Arts Festival (IMAF) in Prince Edward Island wants you (and your work). Animators, documentarians, comics, tragedians, experimentalists, or whomever you may be... we want to see what you create.

In its third year, this year's festival theme is Diverse Networks. What connects seemingly dissimilar people? What technologies and mediums unite media artists from all perspectives? In this spirit, IMAF2012 seeks to connect media artworks made throughout the Atlantic provinces.

With screenings province-wide, workshops, panel discussions, networking events, street-projections, and parties, IMAF2012 is a little festival with big heart.

- Works of all genres are welcome.
- Maximum length of 30 min. (Exceptions are possible, please contact).
- We are interested in works created for web distribution as well as traditional platforms.
- Works must be created by (the major creative force behind the work must come from) an individual who resides in or has significant ties to the Atlantic Provinces.
- Rough cuts can be submitted. Please indicate if your submission is a rough cut.

Dates:

- Submission deadline is February 15th, 2012 (post-marked by February 15th, 2012)
- Successful Applicants will be notified by March 15th 2012
- Presentation Copies must be at IMAF by April 1st, 2012
